Call to Action: National Conference on Black Violence

National Black Violence Conference

With an event this large we have many roles and responsibility we need to fulfill. Below we have outlined the specific areas we will be counting on volunteers to help us with. It is with your help that we will have a successful, productive, and fun weekend.

Workshop Monitor

Responsible for monitoring assigned conference workshops. Making sure workshop begins and ends on time, communicating with workshop speakers and making sure they have all the necessary supplies and equipment needed. Distributing and collecting workshop evaluations at the end of each session.

Registration Assistants

Greet conference participants and assist them when they arrive to the conference with, checking in and completing all the necessary registration materials for the event. Distribute conference packets (materials) to participants. These volunteers will work closely with the BBV Registration Committee.

Evaluation Coordinator

Coordinate evaluation packets for workshop monitors and collect completed evaluations in a central location at the end of each session. Each evaluator will be assigned to a specific set of workshops to be sure that all evaluations from the conference are completed and collected.

Lunch Monitors

All volunteers who are scheduled to volunteer during lunch will assist with lunch set up and distributing lunch to workshop participants. Monitor the lunch area and make sure that participants have received lunch. Monitor will also assist with clean-up after luncheon.

Conference Reception (Friday, October 22, 2016)

Volunteers will assist with set up of reception area, greeting and registering guest during the event. Also volunteers will assist with clean-up at the end of event. Volunteers for the reception will work closely with the Chair of the Reception.

All selected volunteers will receive one (1) complimentary registration and conference registration materials.

All guests of volunteers must register and pay for conference in advance.

Please rank from 1-3 (1 being your first choice) areas you would like to volunteer:

Note: Volunteers work in all capacities on that day.
